

Empowering

Asian American Communities

A Talk by the Honorable United States
Congresswoman Judy Chu

May 28 at 7:30pm

Little Theater, Toledo Museum of Art

In celebration of Asian American Heritage Month this May, the Honorable United States Congresswoman Judy Chu (California's 32nd District) has been invited to speak on May 28 at 7:30pm in the Little Theater in the Toledo Museum of Art (TMA) (2445 Monroe St. Toledo, OH 43620 (419) 255-8000, www.toledomuseum.org). Dr. Judy Chu is one of the very few Asian American women now in the United States Congress and is the first Chinese American woman elected to the United States Congress. She will talk about empowering Asian American communities, current issues and future directions. For more info about her, please refer to <http://chu.house.gov/contact/index.shtml>.

This event is free and open to the public. Dr. Chu's talk is sponsored by the 80-20 NW Ohio Chapter of Asian Americans (<http://www.80-20initiative.net/about/chapters.asp>) that also works with other Asian American organizations, including Asian Indian Americans, Chinese Americans, Filipino Americans, Korean Americans, Japanese Americans, and Southeast Asian Americans. Thanks are extended to the APA planning committee and TMA for their support. For more info, please feel free to email Dr. Lee (liyueting@yahoo.com)
