

Our Brave and Strong
Ancestors and Elders
Fought the Good, Long and Difficult Fight with Offerings
of their
Blood, Tears and Lives
for us to have
The Right to Vote.

(>> Pass It On >>)

African-American Citizens Voting in Richmond, Virginia, 1871

"The 24th Amendment, which prohibited the denial or abridgment of the right to vote by "reason of failure to pay any poll tax or other tax," was ratified on January 23, 1964. Imagine that you are finally old enough to vote in your first election. But, do you have enough money."

Marching in the Street to earn the Right to Vote 1960s

Males Marching to earn the Right to Vote in the 1960s

Brother Martin Luther King Fought the Brave and Good Fight so that we would have The Right to Vote

-

Signing of the 1965-Voting Right Act

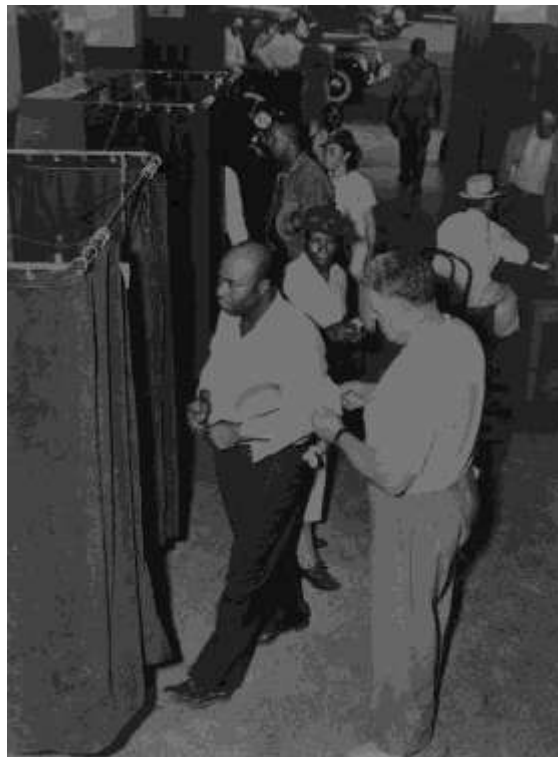

YES!

Black Folks Vote for the 1st Time in Charleston, South Carolina

In the Long Line to Vote in the 1960's

Going into the Booth to Vote in the 1960's

They entered their Vote in the 1960s

In the Long Line to Vote in the 1960s

In a Large Crowd to Vote in the 1960s

Reading the Ballot

Got to!

Two Sisters standing outdoors and holding signs reading 'Vote Baby Vote' and 'Voting is People Power,' for Blacks and Women – 1970s

They Fought and Marched for our
Right to Vote
--
so we must
VOTE

Still Fighting to Maintain Our Right to Vote (Kill the Voter ID "Law" in 2012)

Again!

Yes, we must!

November 6, 2012